Product Name :
Squid Belly Opening Gutting Machine

Product Code :
UAESQM0001

Description :

Squid Belly Opening Gutting Machine

Technical Specification :

The machine is designed for automatic cutting of squid (opening, gutting, separation of tentacles and viscera). The accuracy of the machine does not damage the inside when cutting. At the output, parts of the squid are technologically separated into separate production lines, which makes it possible to organize a highly efficient process of processing. All operations are performed with care.
